

I support keeping the New Jersey "do not call" program as it now exists. I am strongly against any changes that would weaken this program.